

Hey Ballers,

We are extremely conscious of the concern surrounding recent government advice and whilst we would like to stay open and champion having a true happy place to visit during such a turbulent time, this unfortunately cannot happen.

As of 17th March, both our Soho and Shoreditch venues will be closed until further notice. During this time, we are unable to process any refunds, however, we are on hand to deal with reschedules for a future date that suits you or to issue gift vouchers – albeit we may take longer to respond to the volume of calls and emails. We are protecting our staff wages during this closure in the best way possible as we understand this is out of their hands, and we ALL have a life to live.

The current situation is fast-moving and an unprecedented one so please bear with us until we're back to the famous Ballie vibe that you all know and love!

Take care,
Team Ballie
